

RICHELIEU AVOCATS IS RECRUITING an associate in employment and social security law

With a desire to assist, counsel and defend our clients in an increasingly complex and demanding social, economic and legal environment.

RICHELIEU AVOCATS is pursuing its development and seeks the following profile:

An associate in employment law. You have passed a Master 2 in employment law and the CAPA (Certificat d'Aptitude à la Profession d'Avocat). You have demonstrated professionalism, work ethic, autonomy and thoroughness, in a successful experience in a law firm in employment law. You have a preference for litigation. You are able to work with a clientele of both large companies and SMEs operating in diverse areas. You are also able to defend senior executives.

Please send us your CV and a cover letter or email to the following address : recrutement@richelieuavocats.com